

WHERE HAS EVERYBODY GONE ?

1987

Chanté par: ???

*Where has everybody gone?
I've got this feelin', God, am I here on my own?
Where's my support now, where's the ranks of the strong?
In this faceless crowd, where can I belong?*

*Everybody's gone insane to catch a plane to help the heavens closer
They want the kingdom but they don't want the king
They want his throne.
There's no time, there's no time at all.*

*Where has everybody gone?
With great pleasure, I sing your national song.
Because you're beautiful land will soon be long gone.
And the ashes of your memoirs will be strewn across the lawn.*

*Hack your face, save your case, reserve your place in the everafter
Cause hallowed halls are lined with walls
That are cracked with delirious laughter
There's no time, there's no time at all.*

*Where has everybody gone?
There's no time, there's no time at all.
You won't survive and soon be long gone
Gone*

*Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
[Laughter]*
